It focuses on Chinese onshore and offshore stocks, where it seeks to invest in companies with sustainable growth at reasonable valuations. The Fund offers access to an experienced investment team with the proven ability to generate outperformance in Chinese markets over different cycles. The overall portfolio is constructed close to benchmark in sector and market capitalization weighting, so that stock selection is the main performance driver of portfolio. It is expected to move in line with the underlying market and to outperform its benchmark over an investment cycle.

Main risk factors

The Fund invests in equities and equity-related securities, which can be affected by daily stock market movements. Other influential factors include political and economic news, company earnings, and corporate events. As the Fund invests in the Chinese onshore and offshore market, it may be subject to political and economic risks and, as a result, may be more volatile than funds with a broader geographical diversification. As the Fund is actively managed with a mid-to long-term investment horizon, it may deviate from and underperform its benchmark in the short-term. For a complete overview of all risks attached to the Fund, please refer to the "Risk Factors" section in the Supplement and the Prospectus.
